

ARCACHON

Monday July 5th and 19th
August 2nd and 23rd 2010

Please contact Sandrine + 33 6 85 42 74 03
or Cécile + 33 6 84 74 92 88

AGENCE DES GRANDS CRUS 33200 BORDEAUX TEL : + 33 (0)5.57.22.16.31
E-MAIL : AGENCEDESGRANDSCRUS@ORANGE.FR

Agence des Grands Crus

The Arcachon Bay

Morning :

8.50 am : Meeting with your guide in front of the tourism office and transfer by bus to the Arcachon Bay.

You will board on a boat to sail the Bassin and discover the beautiful Ile aux Oiseaux, a wonderful place to stop off at low tide, or to view the famous maisons tchanquées - houses on stilts or venture to the mouth of the bay to view the famous Dune de Pyla

Disembarking in Cap Ferret.

Private greeting with an oyster farmer and Visit of his installations. Explanations on his ways of culture and his daily work and the oyster breeding.

Tasting of 6 oysters, bread and butter and white wine.

Way back to Arcachon and lunch in a restaurant Diego with view on the lagoon for a typical meal with seafood .

Agence des Grands Crus

Menu example

Prawn platter

Hake Plancha, ratatouille
Mashed potatoes

Fresh fruit salad

White wine

Coffee

Agence des Grands Crus

Afternoon :

Visit of the winter town of Arcachon by bus

You will discover many houses from other times: Gothic Manors, chalets, Colonial houses, Moorish houses where some of the greatest artists of the 19th century such as François Coppée, André Gide, and Paul Cézanne.

Discovery of the famous Pilat Sand Hill

You will be able to climb this « sand mountain » (105 m high) and discover its panoramic view on the Arguin bank, one of the favourite resting place for many species of migrating birds. It shelters, for example, every spring the biggest colony of sterns (seaswallows).

5.30 pm: Transfer back to Bordeaux

Agence des Grands Crus

Pricing

(from 25 to 40 people)

Full day

95,00 € pers

This fare includes the guide fees for the day, the transportation, the privatisation of the boat, the lunch (3 dishes coffee and wine) oyster and wine tasting.