Bordeaux

During this day, you will discover the reason why Bordeaux was recently labelled World heritage of Unesco and so through its architectural and cultural heritage.

Morning: Guided tour of the main monuments of Bordeaux through a circuit by foot, in bicycle or by bus.

Lunch in a typical restaurant of the city centre.

Afternoon: visit of an historical monument or one of the main cultural places of the Aquitaine capital before a stop over in a local candy producer.

The Médoc vineyard.

During this day, you will be welcomed in the Châteaux which made the reputation of the great red wines of the territory between the Atlantic Ocean and the estuary of the Gironde: the Médoc.

Morning: visit of a prestigious Château of the Margaux appellation where you will discover the secrets of the vineyard work and the wine storehouses before sampling the nectar that offers us these Grands Crus.

Lunch in the heart of the vineyard and discovery of the Estuary.

Afternoon: visit and wine sampling in a Château of an appellation of the north of the vineyard (Saint Julien, Saint Estephe, Pauillac...)

At the end of the visit, a stop over will be organized with a manufacturer of typical sweet of the Médoc area.

The Graves and the Sauternes vineyards

A day trip among very different vineyards.

Morning: visit of a prestigious property of the Pessac Léognan appellation which produces both white and red Grands Crus. You will apprehend the methods of wine making process of these exceptional wines before sampling them.

Lunch in Sauternes.

Afternoon: visit and tasting in a Château of Sauternes, this famous appellation is the only one that produces a sweet white wine so delicate.

Tasting of sweet specialities (cannelé and almond pastry aromatised with Sauternes).

Saint Emilion and its vineyard

Saint Emilion, village listed as part of the universal heritage of the Unesco which knew how to preserve a perfect match between vineyard and stones.

Morning: guided tour of the medieval city through its monuments and its narrow streets.

Lunch in the medieval city.

Afternoon: you will be welcomed in one of the Grands Crus Classés Châteaux for a visit of the installations followed by a sampling.

Stop over with tasting of macarons of Saint-Emilion accompanied with a glass of Cremant (a fizzy white wine).

The Arcachon Bay

Between ocean and forest, the Arcachon bay gives you a complete change of scene.

Morning: Guided tour in the heart of the “winter town” of Arcachon or the House of the Oyster in Gujan-Mestras.

Lunch with a sea view

Afternoon: You will take on board for a ballad on the bay where you will be seduced by the wild life of the sea. You will sail along the edge of the bay in order to discover the charming oyster farming villages.
